

Announcement April 24, 2017

We would like to thank our distributors for their ongoing patronage. As you are probably aware we have been moving towards a distribution model for quite some time. Kinetic Solar is proud to announce that effective May 1, 2017, we will have completed our move to distribution in western Canada. All inquires will be directed through our distribution network. Current quotations will be honoured until expiry.

Sincerely,

Henry Reinelt
